SELÇUK UNIVERSITY APPLICATION
GUIDE FOR SELECTION OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

GENERAL INFORMATION, BASIC PRINCIPLES AND RULES

- Foreign or international candidates who want to study at Selçuk University in associate and undergraduate programs can apply within the Selçuk University International Student Selection and Placement Process.
- This guide covers the application process and provisions for those who want to apply to the International Student Selection process to study at Selçuk University for the 2025-2026 academic year.
- The only language used in communication (e-mail) between the S.Ü. International Student Selection Exam Coordinatorship and candidates is Turkish.
- The SÜYÖS Coordinatorship is not responsible for any incomplete or incorrect communication information provided by the candidate, or for any delays or errors in communication tools (mail, internet, etc.) during communication.
- The International Student Selection process is only for students who want to study at the associate and undergraduate levels. The transfer procedures of those studying at a higher education institution to S.Ü. and the S.Ü. The procedures of those who want to study in postgraduate programs are outside the scope of the S.Ü. Foreign Student Selection Exam

Coordination Unit.

The S.Ü. Foreign Student Selection Exam Coordination Unit does not deal with the procedures of students such as accommodation, scholarship, subsistence and residence permit in Turkey.

The processes and provisions in this guide may be changed if the decisions of the Council of Higher Education make it necessary. In this case, the path to be followed is determined by the S.Ü. Foreign Student Selection Exam Coordination Unit. In cases not specified in this guide, the procedures are carried out according to the decisions made by the S.Ü. Foreign Student Selection Exam Coordination Unit.

The SÜYÖS-2025 guideline may be accessed only through internet.
